

Tuesday 12 July Programme

08:15 Registration, refreshments and exhibition

10:00 Welcome

10:15 Keynote: What we did in Ferguson: a warts-and-all telling of stories

Scott Bonner, Director, Ferguson Municipal Public Library

11:00 Refreshments and exhibition

11:40 Managing Information

Valuing IM - Stephen Phillips
Determining how information literacy adds value in the workplace - Andrew Whitworth & Stéphane Goldstein

Everyday Innovation

Walking out of the library: engaging non-traditional library users outside of the library space - Amy Hearn & Tiffany Haigh
Reads and rights: celebrating equality and diversity in the library collections at Bath Spa University Library - Alison Baud
Libraries really do change lives! - John Vincent

Using Technology

From volumes to values – improving how we measure digital engagement - Douglas White
TeenTech: integrating research and information literacy in our future - Jane Secker & Rebecca Jones

Fringe

Q&A session with Scott Bonner

Your Career

Shouting about the value of our skills - Alison Brettell, Dawn Finch, Jan Parry & Kate Arnold

12:40 Lunch and exhibition

14:00 Parallel sessions (choose from one of the following):

Studio Theatre - The fences are up here: What is the role of our libraries in supporting and protecting our communities from a rising mental health crisis? - Becci Louise, Poet and Educator

Concert Hall - Bringing the right knowledge to bear on everyday healthcare - Patrick Mitchell, Professor Graeme Dewhurst & Sue Lacey Bryant

14:40 Room change

14:50 Managing Information

Managing information is our best defence - Rebecca Dorsett
Systematising Shakespeare: The Royal Shakespeare Company's journey from image management darkness to DAM enlightenment - Michelle Morton & Patrick Towell

Everyday Innovation

Using a business approach to developing a library service - Neil Infield
Marketing and user engagement in a library mutual - James Powell & Krystal Vittles

Using Technology

A collaborative approach to digital inclusion - Sharon Wagg & Luke Wilson
Protecting patron privacy in the surveillance age - Alison Macrina

Fringe

'Librarians I have loved... a love letter' followed by Q&A session - Chris Riddell

Your Career

Developing leaders in the profession: Tales from the CILIP Leadership Programme - Jo Alcock

15:50 Refreshments and exhibition

16:30 Managing Information

Supporting the role of copyright related risk in the workplace: the legislative context and business case - Naomi Korn
Information governance : models for delivery - Elizabeth Lomas

Everyday Innovation

Easy Read Project: Developing literacies through bespoke library resources - Kate Grigsby & Rebecca Davison
Developing digital literacy skills in academic and professional staff - Jennifer Wilson & Laurence Morris

Using Technology

The Bodleian Libraries and social media: how we succeed with our strategy - Adam Koszary (p26)
The secret online lives of teenagers: How adolescents seek information using social media - Lara Dodd

Fringe

Carnegie Library Lab innovation showcase and workshop: Digital Toyboxes and Rub-a-dubhub - David Hayden, Eileen Russell, Jenny Peachey, & Tom Forrest

Your Career

Using the Impact Toolkit to advocate for your service or skills - Juanita Foster-Jones

17:30 Close of conference

17:45 Jubilee Library tour - Meet at Jubilee Library

19:30 Party on the pier

Wednesday 13 July Programme

- 08:15 Registration, refreshments and exhibition
- 08:30 Bibliotheca breakfast seminar: Make light work of digital collection development
Joanna Ellis
- 09:45 Welcome
- 10:00 Keynote: The opportunities and challenges of open data - Sir Nigel Shadbolt, Professor of Computer Science, University of Oxford & Principal of Jesus College
- 10:45 Refreshments and exhibition

11:25

Managing Information

The changing KM landscape, the future of KM and our role in it as KM professionals - Paul Corney
"It's about relationships, really..."
How a public sector partnership has made it easier for partners to share knowledge - Andy Bent

Everyday Innovation

Innovation, collaboration and enhancing learning: developing a shared virtual enquiry service for university libraries in the north of England - Liz Jolly & Sue White
Libraries & NHS Trust working in partnership - Catherine Mann

Using Technology

Are your eBooks being used? - Jo Alcock
Making the most of Wi-Fi – Measuring the impact - Brian Ashley & Ben Lee

Fringe

Discussion session: Thinking through every day innovation, using technology and managing information - Facilitated by Tom Forrest & chaired by Douglas White

Your Career

Tools to help you build your career - Presented by the CILIP Member Services Team

12:25 Lunch and exhibition

13:45

Managing Information

Advocating information assets: the Archive Service Accreditation Scheme? - Steve Skeldon
Data stewardship – A case study in unlocking the value of data - Philippa Fogarty & Richard Turton

Everyday Innovation

The outcomes of reading for pleasure and empowerment - Laura Venning
Involvement increases influence: understanding the power of what we do - Karen Robinson

Using Technology

Making library makers: A practical guide to developing digital making opportunities through openness and collaboration - Kate Lomax & Carlos Izsak
Fab Labs: Spaces that jostle with challenges and opportunities - Charlotte Collyer

Fringe

Update on 'Libraries Deliver: Ambition for Public Libraries in England 2016-2021' - Kathy Settle

Your Career

Professional Registration Café - Presented by the CILIP Member Services Team

14:45 Refreshments and exhibition

15:25 Keynote: From the bronze age to big data: why knowledge matters
Lauren Smith, Research Associate, School of Education, University of Strathclyde

16:30 Conference close

Room information: See the floor plan for room locations

Keynotes
Concert Hall

Managing Information
Old Courtroom (via the Registration Area)

Everyday Innovation
Studio Theatre

Using Technology
Concert Hall

Fringe
Founders Room

Your Career
King William IV Room
(via the Registration Area)